“ Now all who believed were together, and had all things in common, and sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as anyone had need. So continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved.”

Acts 2:44-47

“Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you.” And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.” John 20:21-23

“And they proposed two: Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed and said, “You, O Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which of these two You have chosen to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.” And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias. And he was numbered with the eleven apostles.” Acts 1:23-26

“ And God has appointed these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings....” 1 Corinthians 12:28

So Far...

- 1. The Lord established the Church which became community of believers.
- 2. The Lord instituted rules and guidelines for the church while HE was here on earth.
- 3. The Lord gave the authority to the Apostles to govern the church.
- 4. Early in the book of acts, we see the Apostles establishing certain rules for the community of faith.

So Far...

- 5. The Church expands and grows, adding to herself thousands more people.
- 6. These people come with imperfections and shortcomings and are in need of continual guidance while they navigate their way to the kingdom.
- 7. Because all people are imperfect, Canon law has been established to help the church stay spiritually healthy, to focus on the Kingdom, to relate to one another and to relate to the world according to God's will.
